"A GIST OF THE ANTI RAGGING SEMINAR"

The Anti-ragging seminar for fresher and seniors on 25th October 2023 at Sharavathi dental college and hospital. The seminar was conducted as per the guidelines of Dental Council of India was presided by the esteemed DCI member Dr. Shivasharan Shetty.

The members of Anti Ragging Committee, Anti Ragging Squad, staff and students participated in the seminar.

At the outset, Dr. Purushotham R., inaugurated the program and greeted all the members.

Vice Principal Dr. Shrinidhi M. S., educated the students regarding the ill effects and punishment meted out for ragging. complemented them that in this year not a single complaint was received from any student.

Dr. Shivasharan Shetty DCI member, deliberated on the impact of ragging on emotional status of the fresher's and gave examples of such unfortunate events followed by punishment meted out to them. The chairmen briefed the members about what constitutes the ragging as given in DCI regulations. The members reviewed the measures taken by the university to prohibit ragging.

Dr. Purushotham described in length about the legal issues, offences pertaining to ragging and answered the queries of students pertaining to ragging. He also explained the policies of the university and informed the members that the university has a policy of zero tolerance towards ragging and fully committed to provide a safe and secure environment for learning.

The following procedure/ documents were reviewed;

1. Public declarations are made by displaying posters at various vintage places in the university.
2. The brochures of admission/prospects in print and electronic format contains the gist of regulations only.

All helpline numbers, anti-ragging committee members and squad members name and numbers were prominently displayed, and they also participated in the program.

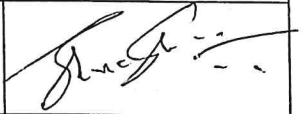

The seminar was concluded with a vote of thanks.
